Phil:

OK - you're on. However, Glenn and Kate has the lead, particularly in terms of interaction with the ICF contract team who will be completing technical editing and formatting the final document.

Jeff,

I would like to be on the editorial team to review the document for consistency throughout between 11/9 and 12/5.

It was a beautiful Alaska Day today. Snow on the ground, temps around freezing and "warm" sunshine (the day started at 12 degrees).

Subject: Bristol Bay Final Assessment: Schedule

Team:

Following up on today's technical call, below are the details for our schedule to produce the Final Bristol Bay Assessment. It is challenging; however, we have assembled a great team, have the full and complete backing of our management, and I think we can do it.

Please let me know as you encounter stumbling blocks or obstacles. There will be some. The trick is not to let obstacles sit and ferment. Let me know and together we will find solutions.

Thanks all.

Jeff
